GRIEVED POLE TRIES SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, December 19.—John Marshallack, a Polish baker, attempted suicide last night by slashing his left wrist because "my president (Gabriel Narutowicz, assassinated Saturday) is killed, and there is nothing more to live for." He is expected to recover.

corps, has been transferred from the naval air station, Pensacola, Fla., to the bureau of aeronautics, Navy Department, this city.

NAMED TO WEST POINT.

William H. Montgomery Gets Cadetship Appointment.

William H. Montgomery, 4215 Illinois avenue northwest, has been appointed a cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. He was educated in this city, having graduated from the Central High School, where he was captain of Company G, High School Cadets, last June.

He distinguished himself in athletics at the school, where he was the star quarter-miler and a member of the relay team. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Montgomery.

ESTATE LEFT IN TRUST.

Will of Maj. Brinkerhoff Provides for Widow and Children.

The will of Maj. Henry S. Brinkerhoff, U. S. A., retired, has been filed for probate. Before entering the Army Maj. Brinkerhoff was a local newspaper man. He died at Bonn, Germany, December 1, while representing American business interests there. He leaves his entire estate to L. Russell Alden, Fred L. Fishback and Mrs. Sue T. Brinkerhoff in trust for the maintenance of his widow and two children. On the death of the wife the property is to go to the children when each attains the age of twenty-five years.

Should the children die without issue the estate is to be divided between the Columbia Polytechnic Institute and George Washington University. Attorney L. Russell Alden is named as executor.

Iron Justice.

My cousin, Charles Augustus, is sore on modern justice, he makes an earnest wail; for he was pinched for speeding, and, heedless of his pleading, they sentenced him to jail. Before the peels nailed him, before the jurist jailed him, he used to talk a lot about the looted voters who speeded up their motors—their conduct made him hot. "Mere fines will never punish these speedsters wild and Hunnish," I often heard him say; "in prison let them languish; perchance such dole and anguish will make them change their way. No matter what their standing, I hope to see them landing in prison for their crimes; mere fines won't make them wriggle; they merely grin and giggle as they dig up the dimes." And after all this talking a peeler caught him rocking his old tin bus along, at fifty miles or faster, and since this dread disaster he says jail terms are wrong. "Our bulwarks are forgotten, our institutions rotten," he says, in somber tones, "when people law-abiding are jailed for slowly riding, and fed on musty bones. Where is our boasted freedom when men who never speed are pinched for driving cars, and jailed with common felons and fed on last year's melons, behind the rusty bars? I do not call it justice," says Cousin Charles Augustus, "when one of high estate, a man renowned in letters, is loaded down with fetters like some cheap tinhorn skate."
